

Sims Art+Sound has been active in New York for the last decade providing art services to museums, galleries and other exhibition venues, including the Guggenheim Museum, Grey Art Gallery, and the Onassis Cultural Center. Johanna's resume also includes a great variety of sound design and editing. Sims Art+Sound was relocated to Sweden in 2010 and continues to offer expertise in practical art services as well as consulting and sound design in the realm of exhibitions and film.

Art services include:

- Art handling, mount making and installation
- Exhibition carpentry and construction
- Visual and technical exhibition consultation
- Conservation assistance and in-painting

Sound services include:

- Sound design
- Post production sound editing on a Pro Tools LE system